MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Hello!

These past couple of weeks have just flown by! There have been so many great things happening in our School and on campus, I hope you've been able to take a break and join some of these great opportunities, such as our meeting with Distinguished Alumni, Kristi Daugherty CEO of Emergence Health (they are looking for social worker!); the mid-term stress buster put on by our amazing Peer Support Mentors or even the Aggie Football game against Louisiana Tech (we won in double-overtime, my husband made me leave 4 minutes before the end of the fourth quarter because he was tired 😞) where we honored our own BSW student Sara Hipps for all her amazing work on behalf of the School of Social Work and NMSU.

But, maybe you didn't make it to an event because you are just too darn busy? That's okay too. There's always this week (or next week) with lots of different opportunities featured in the Buzz. At one point when I was feeling a bit overwhelmed the song "keep on swimming" from Finding Nemo came into my head. I share the clip with you here to remind you to "keep on swimming". And if you haven't seen Finding Nemo (or it's been awhile), I recommend you take a break right now and watch it. You'll feel so much better.

As always, don't forget to reach out if we in the School of Social Work can help you to "keep on swimming".

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN AND BORDER STUDIES

TUCKER WILL FOCUS ON SIGNIFICANT UNITED STATES ASYLUM POLICY SHIFTS SINCE 2018. HE EXPLORES HOW MEASURES LIKE METERING, THE MIGRANT PROTECTION PROTOCOLS (MPP), TITLE 42, AND THE CBP ONE APP HAVE COLLECTIVELY ERECTED UNPRECEDENTED BARRIERS FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS, DISPROPORTIONATELY AFFECTING THE MOST VULNERABLE POPULATIONS. DRAWING FROM HIS EXTENSIVE, ON-THE-GROUND EXPERIENCE WORKING AT THE U.S.-MEXICO BORDER, TUCKER OFFERS A UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE ON HOW THESE RESTRICTIVE POLICIES HAVE RESHAPED THE MIGRATION LANDSCAPE. TUCKER ALSO HIGHLIGHTS THE VITAL ROLE OF LOCALLY-LED ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE STEPPED UP TO FILL THE GAPS LEFT BY U.S. POLICY, PROVIDING ESSENTIAL LEGAL, MEDICAL, AND HUMANITARIAN SERVICES IN THE ABSENCE OF GOVERNMENT SUPPORT.

Volunteers needed for high school quiz bowl

The NMSU Quiz Bowl team is looking for volunteers, including students, faculty and staff, to help us with this semester's tournament. Staffing a quiz bowl tournament is an investment, but remarkably rewarding and incredibly fun.

Student volunteers can see their hours count towards council appropriations, senate reimbursements or points for the Aggie Cup, and the experience makes for a great addition to any resume or CV. We hope you will consider donating a day of your time for this very worthwhile endeavor, as these tournaments represent an opportunity for the high school students in our area.

If interested, please fill out the form. For more information, contact Z Burns at 575-339-7242 or zhburns@nmsu.edu.
