

Special Education School Social Work Symposium

Advancing Evidence-Based Practice

The Special Education School Social Work Symposium presented by Project SWEET-SPED (Social Work Education to Enhance Training in Special Education) which is funded by a curriculum enhancement grant from the Office of Special Education Programs in the U.S. Department of Education

Save the Date: May 1, 2026 9am-4pm
NMSU Main Campus, 6 CEUs available

Practitioners are invited to contribute brief (15 min) presentations highlighting effective interventions. Submit proposals here.

Registration link coming soon. Sign up here to be notified.

Registration and CEUs are free but limited to:

- NMSU students and faculty
- Current practitioners in schools/districts, Early Intervention agencies, and Pre-k programs that host or are willing to host NMSU social work practicum students

Symposium Highlights

- Special education policy workshop with Disability Rights NM
- Presentations on practice-ready interventions
- Exploration of inclusive, strengths-based approaches to practice
- Multi-disciplinary panel